Canyon Wren Consulting (CWC) is a local group of dedicated healthcare professionals with the capacity to manage and support healthcare operations at all levels of long term and community-based care in the Pacific Northwest. We quickly respond and provide immediate consultation and services to stabilize facilities in need. The team does this onsite through systematic auditing, problem solving, and goal setting with ownership and facility staff. All members have worked in positions that began at the bedside, which is where CWC believes care starts.
