LeadingAge Oregon
2019 Creative Writing and Poetry Contest

We sincerely appreciate all of the entries and look forward to the 2019 submissions. While we try to accommodate all our members' residents, please keep in mind these few entry rules. All entries must be original works, written at the age of 60 or older, previously unpublished, and submitted in electronic form (i.e. cut and paste ability, no pdf files). Contest open to all residents of LeadingAge Oregon member facilities. Each person may submit one entry.

Facility _____ Phone: _____

Facility Coordinator (if applicable) _____

Author Name: _____

(As you want it to appear, if published)

Entries must be submitted in an electronic format (not pdf). Due to the tight judging/printing timeline, all published entries will be reproduced as written. Please check all entries for typos, spelling and punctuation.

Entries will be entered on a website form for submission. Writings will be submitted via www.dropbox.com. Writings should be single space, no auto-indent, text boxes or anything else that would interfere with cut and paste formatting. This is imperative, since winning entries will be included in the book and the packet for readings at the luncheon!

Please mark one: Short Story (1,500 word limit) _____ Poem (500 word limit) _____

Title (Entry must have a title) _____

I certify that I was 60 or older at the time this work was completed. This work is original and has not been published.

Signed: _____ Date: _____

Participant Instructions:

Entries must be submitted via your community coordinator. They will need both an electronic copy of your written work and the completed entry form. In addition to the title, include your name and community on your short story or poem.
